An unexpected trip to hospital

What happened next?

Andrew Middleton
Newbury Retirement Rebels
9 November 2026

Last time, I was exploring
Now, I'm choosing

What do I actually want to keep doing?

The dangerous decade

For me, roughly 57 to 67

My pension changed my thoughts

Apparently, an invoice improves my wisdom

Same person. Same brain.

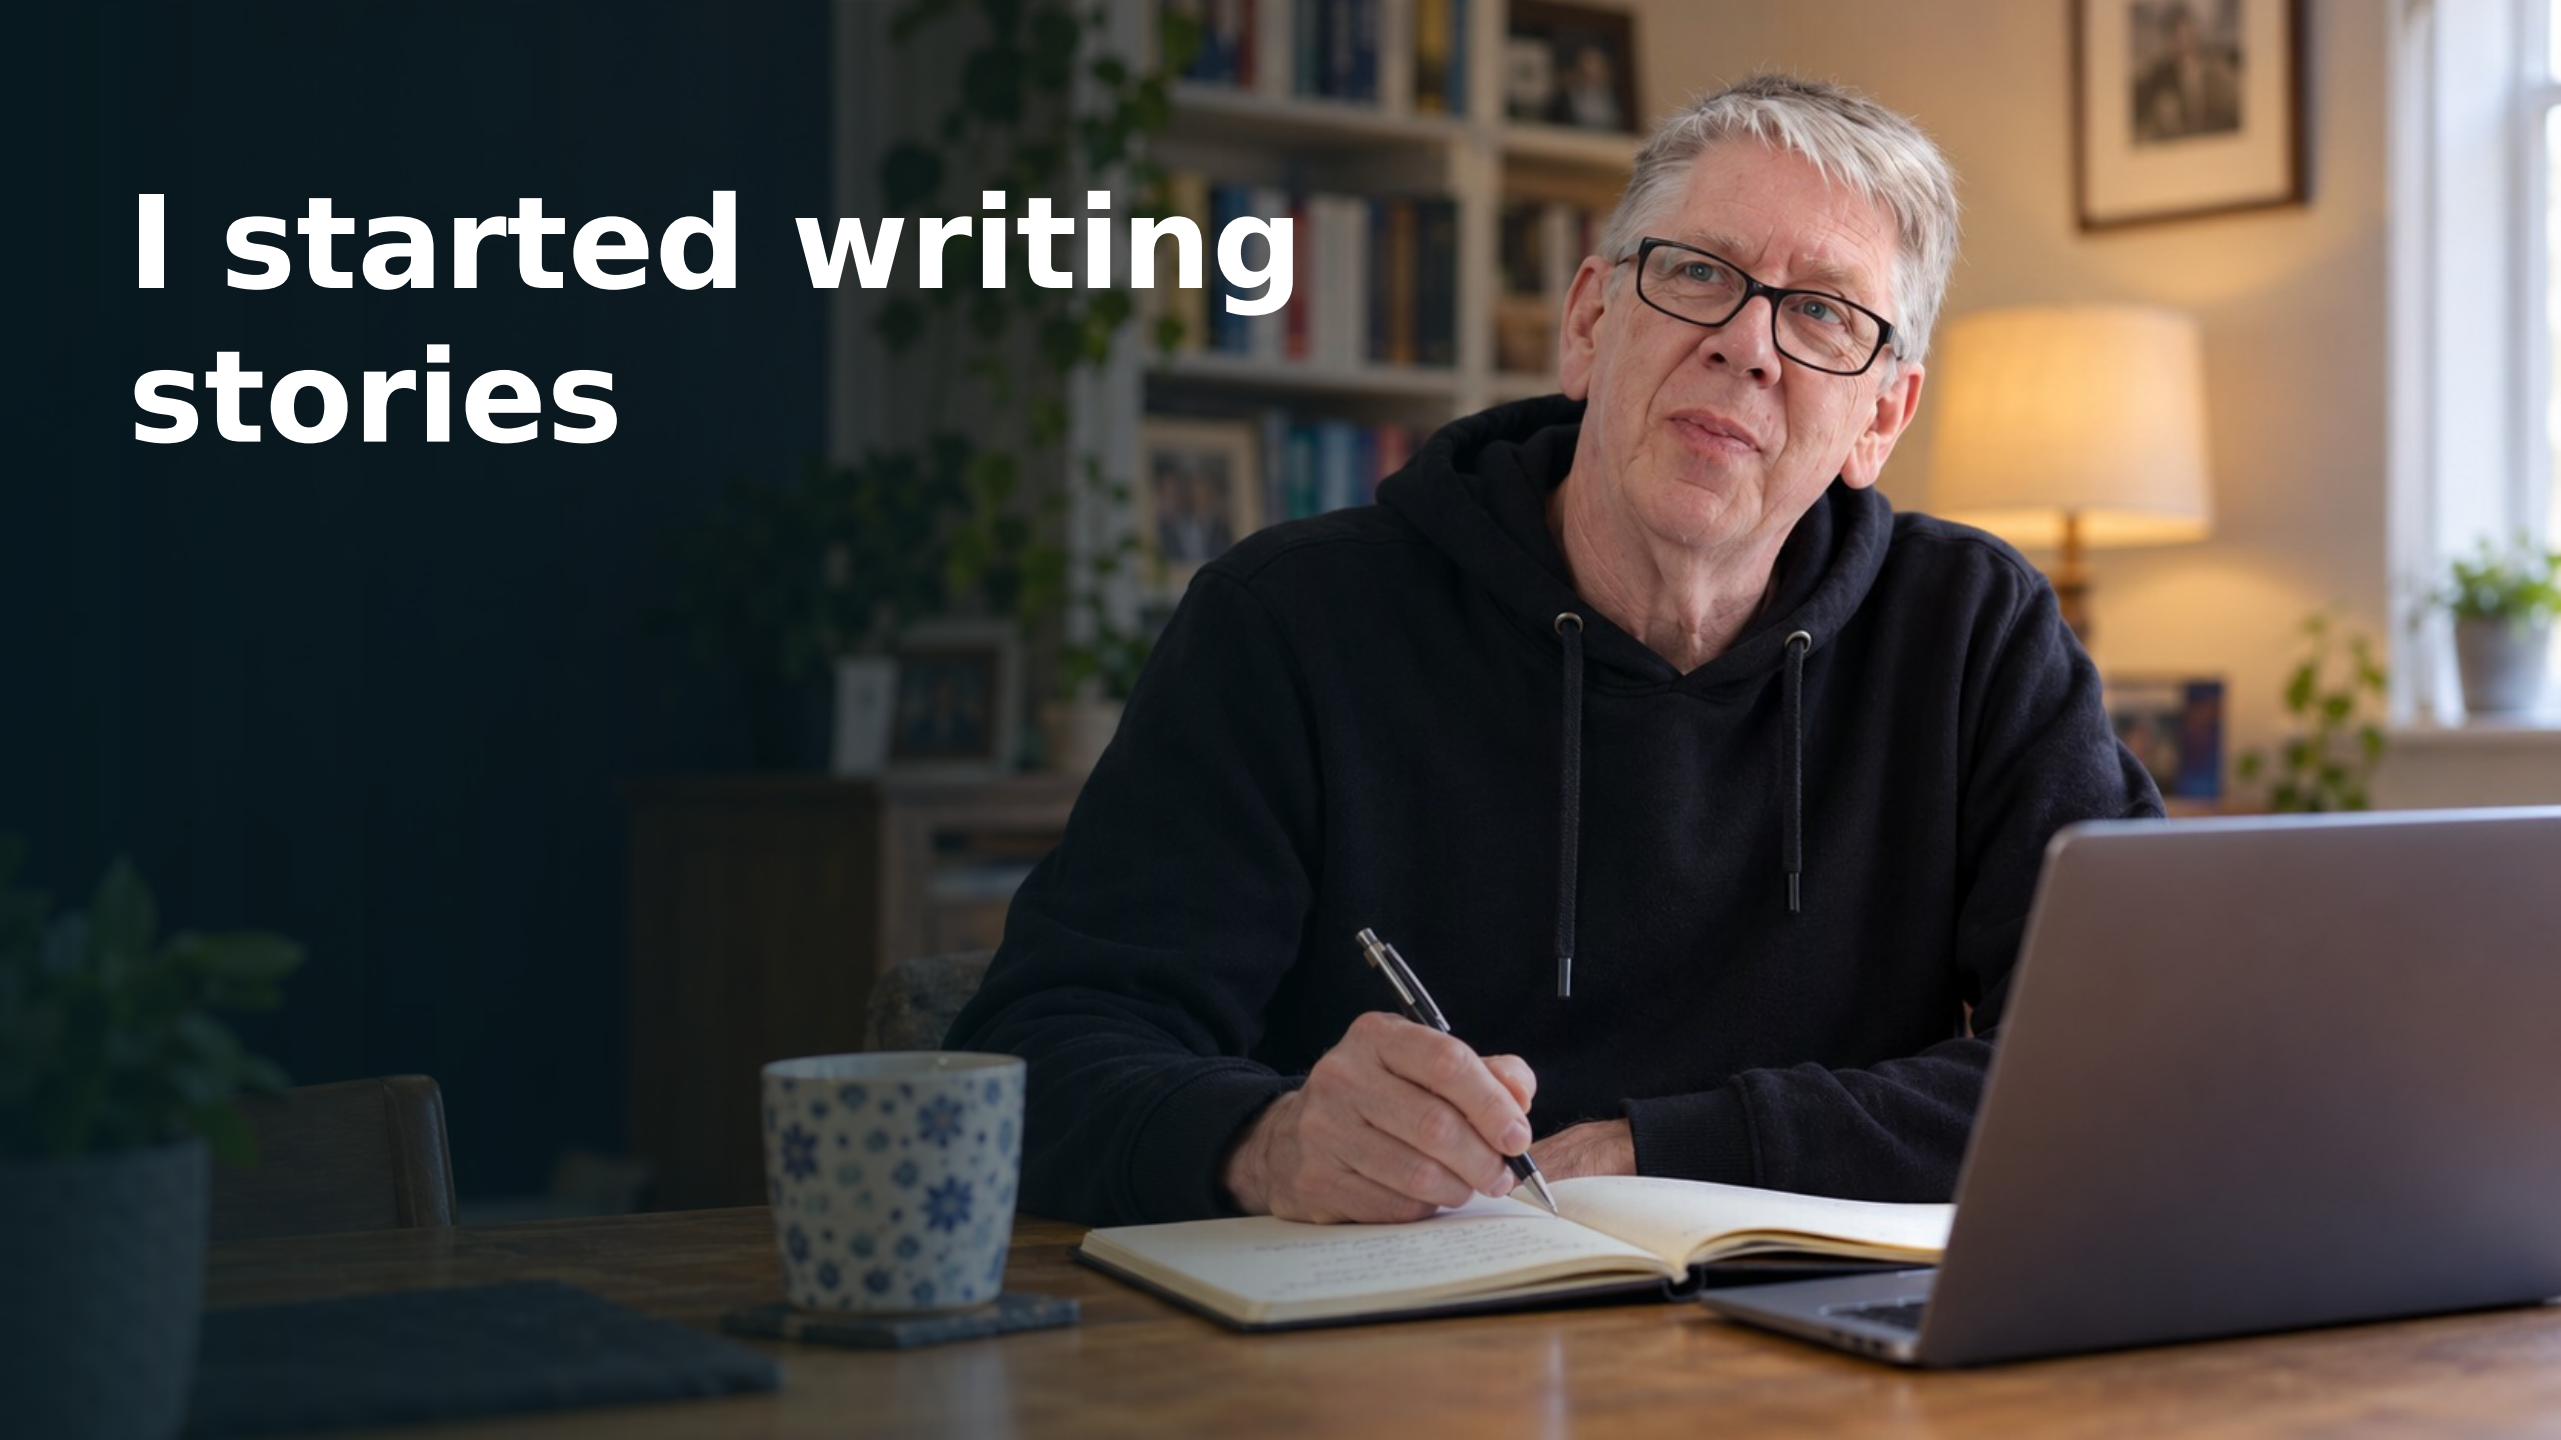

Still marrying people

Something worth doing

I started writing stories

The Plywood Window

Thinking aloud

Around 2 million LinkedIn impressions last year
Some posts reached 160,000 impressions

Putting it into workbooks

INDY -
I'm Not Done Yet

www.imnotdoneyet.org

Still growing. Still working it out.

Over 1,000 members around the world

AI has been liberating

I talk. AI helps structure. I edit.

People who've been there

What would you like more of?

What could you let go of to make room?

